7. History writers- someone to write well-crafted articles about world history from a truly Biblical worldview and people from different countries to write about local history from a truly Biblical worldview.

Responsibilities

Writers are content creators who write, edit, and format quality material for christoa.com. Writers have freedom to choose their own topics within their designated fields. Articles should be well researched, cited, and written. Language should be clear, concise, and understandable. Where more academic language is used, it should be explained for the lay person.

Writers can submit material as often as they would like. There are no deadlines.

Compensation

Since writers are paid a commission, compensation depends on the number of people who purchase access to paid content.

Copyright Information

Writers retain ownership of their content and can publish it wherever they desire. Upon submission of any content, writers grant Christoa Ministries, INC permission to edit, format, and publish that content as desired with the writer's name conspicuously displayed with that content.

Plagiarized material will not be accepted.

How to apply

Submit resume and/or letter of interest to andrewpaul@christoa.com).

Taxes

Private contractors are responsible for paying their own income tax and self-employment tax. Withholding does not apply here.

We are looking for men and women who will work hard and be creative, honest, and fair.

*If you accept this contract position, you agree that this contract may be terminated at any time and for any reason by you or by Christoa Ministries, INC.
